

CURRICULUM VITAE

QUEEN M MABE

RESEARCH INTERESTS

Macroeconomics, Financial Economics, and Development Economics

EDUCATION

PhD in Economics, (expected: 2023) – UNIVERSITY OF JOHANNESBURG

Mcom in Financial Economics, 2013– UNIVERSITY OF JOHANNESBURG

BSc in Economics and Mathematics, 2008 – UNIVERSITY OF WITWATERSRAND

BSc Hons in Mathematics, 2009 – UNIVERSITY OF WITWATERSRAND

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

Lecturer, School of Economics, University of Johannesburg, 2016 – present

PUBLICATIONS AND WORKING PAPERS

1. Queen. M, Mabe, 2013. Estimating Equilibrium Exchange Rates in South Africa. M.Com Dissertation.
2. Lumengo. B and Mabe. Q. M, 2019. How financially integrated are trading blocs in Africa? The Quarterly Review of Economics and Finance.
3. Mabe. Q. M. and Wei. L, 2018. Determinants of Corporate Failure: The Case of the Johannesburg Stock Exchange. Munich Personal RePEc Archive.

WORK IN PROGRESS

1. Mabe. Q. M, Simo-Kengne. B. D, and Lumengo. B, 2021. Capital Structure and banks' Performance in Africa: The role of Trade Integration and Deposit Insurance

WORKSHOPS AND CONFERENCE PROCEEDINGS

1. 20-24 May 2019. Theory and econometrics of individual and collective choice analysis: choice and controlled experiments. Workshop.
2. 05-06 Nov 2019. Global Development Finance Conference. Paper Presented: Determinants of Corporate Failure: The Case of the Johannesburg Stock Exchange.
3. 23-25 Nov 2020. Annual Conference of the “Southern Africa Mathematical Sciences Association (SAMSA).
4. 05-06 Dec 2020. World Finance and Banking Symposium. University of Latvia, Riga. Paper Presented: The Impact of Capital Structure on Performance of Major Banks in Africa Subject to the Level of Development.
5. 03-25 Nov '20 2020 Annual Conference of the “Southern Africa Mathematical Sciences Association (SAMSA)”. Paper presented. The application of fixed point theorem in identifying Nash equilibrium in strategic games.

AWARDS/MEMBERSHIPS/AFFILIATIONS

Scholarship of Academic excellence

National Research Foundation Training Certificate (Social Responsibility, Intellectual Property Management, Ethics in Science, Grant writing, and Science Project Management)

Associate Member of the Pan-African Scientific Research