

ELECTION FOR THE VACANT POSITION ON THE EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE OF CONVOCATION

Terms and Conditions

As per the Constitution of the Convocation of the University of Johannesburg, the Executive Committee of the Convocation includes five members elected by Convocation. A vacancy currently exists for one member of the Executive Committee. Following the Call for Nominations, you are now invited to participate in the election for the vacant position on the Executive Committee of Convocation. Members of Convocation are allowed to cast one vote for the candidate of their choice.

The candidates have been classified as Internal or External. A candidate is regarded as 'Internal' if they are currently registered as a student at UJ or in the employ of UJ. A candidate is regarded as 'External' if they are neither a registered student at UJ nor in the employ of UJ.

The candidate with the highest number of votes will be assigned to the vacant position on the Executive Committee of Convocation.

The election for the vacant position on the Executive Committee of Convocation will open on 3 July 2024 and close on 19 July 2024 at 15:00.

Please note:

Your voter number and password are confidential and should not be shared. Do not allow any person to vote on your behalf.