

UNIVERSITY
OF
JOHANNESBURG

SAVE THE DATE

The Future
Reimagined

You are invited to an INTERACTIVE RESEARCH OPEN DAY with the Department of Religion Studies at the University of Johannesburg

Religion plays a major role in society, for better and worse, and in both beautiful and challenging ways. Thus, research into religions matters. It has the potential of shaping a more just and diverse future. The ethnographic and textual research conducted in the Department of Religion Studies at UJ by staff and postgraduate students alike explores living faiths in their social and political contexts, focusing on Christianity and Islam in (South) Africa.

Join us for an interactive morning either in person or online to listen to and engage with postgraduate students as they share about their research with you.

DATE AND TIME: Saturday 20 May 2023 at 9:30-12:30

VENUE: Centre of Academic Technologies (CAT), D-Ring 3, Auckland Park Kingsway Campus / online attendance on Google Meet (<https://meet.google.com/kcw-nezp-wci>)

RSVP: Click here to RSVP

When you RSVP using the link above, please indicate whether you are attending online or in person for catering purposes.

For more information, please contact Ms Charlene Louw (clouw@uj.ac.za).