Calling all change-makers, policy enthusiasts, and advocates for a better South Africa! Don't miss out on the opportunity to be part of a dynamic online policy dissemination workshop.

Theme: Paving Pathways to Inclusive Prosperity: Policies for Poverty Reduction, and Resilience in Post-COVID South Africa.

Date: 14 September 2023 | Time: 8:30 AM - 1:30 PM (GMT+2)
Venue: Sheraton Hotel, Pretoria, and Zoom (Online)

Explore Key Research Themes:

- 1. Recessions, Depressions, and Response to Economic Shocks: The implications of economic shocks on South Africa's poverty, growth, and inequality. Sustainable solutions that drive economic recovery and reduce poverty through pro-growth policies, enhanced education and healthcare investments, and improved access to the labour market.
- 2. COVID-19, Poverty, and Health Inequalities: Social protection programs are crucial in mitigating the crisis's adverse effects. Cross-sectoral alignment of policies are crucial for effective antipoverty, better health, and reduced inequalities

Collaborators:

- African Economic Research Consortium (AERC)
- African Institute for Inclusive Growth (AIIG)
- Gauteng Government
- Economic Development and Wellbeing Research Group (EDWRG), University of Johannesburg

This workshop brings together leading scholars and experts to present and debate crucial policy proposals aimed at addressing pressing post-COVID challenges in South Africa. Join us to contribute your insights and ideas, and together, we can shape transformative policies for a more inclusive and prosperous future.
