Short Learning Programme: Insolvency Law

FACULTY OF LAW

The Future Reimagined

Introduction:

This programme is designed to provide participants with a practical understanding of corporate insolvency law and emphasizes the underlying principles of this field as well as focuses on real-world applications. The curriculum covers a wide range of topics, including the administration of insolvent estates, recent case law updates, and legislative developments. Participants will delve into relevant legal principles related to insolvency and winding-up, examining how existing and new legislation interact and exploring the concept of business rescue. The course also explores impeachable transactions and executory contracts, insolvency meetings, interrogations, proof of claims, as well as shedding light on the liability of directors and the regulation of insolvency practitioners. While the program primarily focuses on South African law, it also addresses cross-border issues that arise when a company's assets and liabilities span multiple jurisdictions. As an enriching addition, a guest lecture on the nature and interaction of Insolvency Law and cryptocurrencies will be featured. The program will be presented by Prof Juanitta Calitz, renowned insolvency practitioner, and experienced attorneys who will share their practical knowledge and expertise.

How Will You Learn?

The programme comprises of live video lectures, case studies, and additional educational reading material and resources. The lectures, will be scheduled over three days, from 09 May to 11 May 2024.
