

UNIVERSITY
OF
JOHANNESBURG

CALL FOR APPLICATIONS

LAND AND CUSTOMARY LAW RESEARCHER

Deadline: Friday 14 June 2024

The Centre for Education Rights and Transformation seeks to appoint a researcher for a short-term archival study to be conducted from July to September 2024.

The successful candidate is required to deliver a high standard publishable desktop research report within a strict non-negotiable deadline by end September.

Key Requirements:

- 1. A PhD or Masters' degree in the Humanities
- 2. Research experience in one or more of these fields in southern Africa:
 - 2.1 Governance Systems, Legal and Policy Frameworks, Tribal Authorities, and Customary Law
 - 2.2 Community and Sustainable development
 - 2.3 Land ownership, Claims, Reform and Disputes
 - 2.4. Environmental Justice, Resource and Benefit-sharing
- 3. Contactable referees and verifiable research experience

Knowledge of San and Khoi Histories, and Nama tribal structures would be an advantage.

Please send the following to cindyb@uj.ac.za by Friday 14 June 2024:

- 1. An application cover letter outlining your relevant research experience for this position;
- 2. Updated CV with 2 contactable referees; and
- 3. Certified qualifications certificates

The Future
Reimagined