

NEW ACQUISITIONS FOR ARCHIVES AND SPECIAL COLLECTIONS AUGUST 2024

Title: Unstoppable women: does education matter? / Sarah Wamala Andersson, Linley Chiwona-Karlton, Pauline Ocaya

Publication: Bloomington, IN: AuthorHouse, 2016.

Shelf No: SBV3 371.822 ANDE Status: LIB USE ONLY

Description of the book

This is a unique book which demonstrates incredible stories of three unstoppable women born and raised in Malawi or Uganda. They decided to seize the moment every time the opportunity for higher education came their way. The book powerfully illustrates what drove these women to attain better lives through higher education and how they conscientiously overcame their adversities and took decisive actions. This book will inspire you to discover the hidden power within you. Regardless of where you are, you will no longer allow circumstances to control your life and hinder you from reaching your full potential.

Title: Women and land: securing rights for better lives / Debbie Budlender and Eileen Alma.

Publication: Ottawa: International Development Research Centre, 2011

Shelf No: CASE 305.42091724 BUDL Status: LIB USE ONLY

Description of the book

The core of this book focuses on recent findings from sub-Saharan Africa, where researchers in 14 countries have explored the topic from many angles: legal, customary, political, and economic. Researchers from non-governmental organizations (NGOs), academics, and grassroots activists worked together with communities, exploring the experiences of women in specific contexts.

Title: Women by women: 50 years of women's photography in South Africa / edited by Robin Comley, George Hallett and Neo Ntsoma; introduction by Penny Siopis.

Publication: Johannesburg: Wits University Press, 2006.

Shelf No: SBV3 779 COML Status: LIB USE ONLY

Description of the book

Commissioned by the Ministry of Arts and Culture, this book celebrates the 50th anniversary of the 1956 women's march on the Union Buildings. It provides a dramatic and unprecedented showcase of photographic talent, from the early pioneers of social documentary, including Anne Fischer and Constance Stuart Larrabee, to the challenging images created by women in South Africa today. 75 photographers and almost 400 images are included.

Title: Troubling the angels: women living with HIV/AIDS / Patti Lather and Chris Smithies

Publication: Boulder, Colo.: Westview Press, 1997.

Shelf No: SBV3 362.19697920082 Status: LIB USE ONLY

Description of the book

Educator Patti Lather and psychologist Chris Smithies observed and chronicled support groups for women diagnosed with HIV. Whether black, Latina, poor, or middle class, the women in these groups share the common bond of living with HIV/AIDS, and they describe how it affects their lives in terms full of practical reality and moving poignancy, as they fight the disease, accept, reflect, live and die with and in it.

Title: In praise of black women / Simone Schwarz-Bart, with André Schwarz-Bart; translated by Rose-Myriam Réjouis and Val Vinokurov ; with a foreword by Howard Dodson.

Publication: Madison, Wis.: University of Wisconsin Press, [2001-]
©2001-

Shelf No: SBV3 305.488 SCHW Status: LIB USE ONLY

Description of the book

In Praise of Black Women is a magnificent tribute to women in Africa and the African diaspora from the ancient past to the present. Lavishly illustrated, with text written and selected by the celebrated Guadeloupean novelist Simone Schwarz-Bart, this four-volume series celebrates remarkable women who distinguished themselves in their time and shaped the course of culture and history.

Title: Women in South African history: they remove boulders and cross rivers = basus'iimbokodo, bawel'imilambo / edited by Nomboniso Gasa.

Publication: Cape Town: HSRC Press, 2007.

Shelf No: SBV3 968. 0082 GASA Status: LIB USE ONLY

Description of the book

"The book . . . forms part of the growing literature on subordinated classes, genders and races in society. By recounting the roles assumed by women during various periods of South African history, [this book] directly challenges the assertions and claims of the defenders of patriarchy by demonstrating that the image of women, especially African women, as silent, non-participant by-standers in history is not only false, but a function of present-day ideology in the service of particular vested interests." —Dr. Z. Pallo Jordan, South African Minister of Arts and Culture.

Title: Woman today: a celebration: fifty years of South African women / compiled by Hilary Reynolds and Nancy Richards

Publication: Cape Town: Kwela Books, 2003.

Shelf No: SBV3 305. 42 REYN Status: LIB USE ONLY

Description of the book

Charting the 50-year course of Woman's World, the highly influential South African radio program, this eclectic collection of transcribed interviews is drawn from a commemorative series of programs that follows the progress of women in South Africa. Featured are the most prominent women in South African history talking about everything from public leadership to cooking recipes, all in their own words and at the time when they were most important. Constituting a who's who of South African woman's history, this book examines the changing gender and racial roles of one of the most socially significant nations of the 21st century.

Title: Women political leaders in Africa / Rosemarie Skaine.

Publication: Jefferson, N.C., McFarland and Company, [2008] ©2008

Shelf No: SBV3 320. 082 SKAI Status: LIB USE ONLY

Description of the book

In Africa, women leaders have a strong legacy. Female pharaohs ruled ancient Egypt, queens and queen mothers have reigned throughout contemporary Africa, and women across the continent have led modern liberation movements. This book's wide-ranging examination of African women leaders focuses especially on women in elected or appointed national government positions. The author provides an extensive analysis of the progress made by women leaders in each individual country, as well as an overall analysis of the historical role of women in African governments. In addition, the book offers in-depth profiles of eleven women in high office, including current Liberian president Ellen Johnson-Sirleaf and Mozambique prime minister Luisa Diogo. The appendix shows the current number of women in national parliaments worldwide.

Title: Migrant women of Johannesburg: everyday life in an in-between city / Caroline Wanjiku Kihato.

Publication: Johannesburg: Wits University Press, 2013.

Shelf No: SBV3 305.906912082 KIHA Status: LIB USE ONLY

Description of the book

Caroline Wanjiku Kihato's Migrant Women of Johannesburg: Everyday Life in an In-Between City (Palgrave MacMillan, 2013) is a book about home and not-home, eloquently told about the hopes and dreams, fears and hardships of migrant women trying to make life and livelihoods in inner city Johannesburg. The result is an honest, raw and poignant ethnography of life “in-between” home and away, urban and rural, local and global, of what mobility means to those who seek the security of home in an unwelcoming place.