SHORT LEARNING PROGRAMMES

Short Learning Programmes (SLPs) are institutionally approved programmes extending over a period of less than one year that do not lead to a qualification, covering a range of social, economic, and educational purposes, aligned with the UJ's PQM and strategic thrust.

To further vocational and career focused studies through continuous studies, the School of Management, UJ College of Business and Economics, offers two Short Learning Programmes (SLPs) for students who possess an NQF 6 Advanced Certificate in Business Management qualification obtained at the University of Johannesburg. These SLP programmes, will provide students with the required status to qualify for a higher-level qualification – the Advanced Diploma in Business Management and the Advanced Diploma in Management (Acceptance to the Advanced Diploma qualifications is subject to specific admission requirements).

These SLPs are not exit level programmes; students enroll in these programmes solely to qualify for some of the full-time programmes

WHERE COMPANIES UNDERTAKE TO PAY FOR STUDIES (BURSARIES OR LOANS)

In an attempt to streamline and avoid confusion with the invoice system, the following procedures should be followed when a third party (Company) is responsible for payment of student studies. Please note that once registered, students will have access to student financial statements and other documentation. This financial statement is an official document and accepted as such by SARS. Please adhere to the requirements:

Obtain an official letter from the Company/ Institution on THE COMPANY LETTERHEAD, which contains the following information:

- Confirmation of Bursary/Loan granted and the amount of the bursary/loan granted;
- Student details (initials, surname and student number);
- Academic year;
- Name of Qualification and list of modules;
- Signature, name and designation of Financial Person within Company responsible for processing payment;
- Telephone number, physical and postal address of person responsible; Signature, Designation and the contact details of the person authorizing this on behalf of the Company.

Companies who are responsible for payments of more than one student can submit one letter, but, each student's individual details must be included in the letter and each student is required to supply a copy of this letter to UJ when registering.

Students are required to register themselves online.

Prior to registration, financial matters need to be sorted out first, therefore Student Finance Division (Bursaries and Loans) can be contacted on 011 559 1370.

Students will remain financially blocked and therefore not be able to register until the minimum registration fees have been paid.

After registration, students will be able to access the UJ system for a financial statement (SARS accepted), please use the electronic access available to all registered students by logging onto the UJ website (http://: www.uj.ac.za).

All registered students have a UJ email address, which is the only address that is used to correspond with students – no personal email addresses can be used.

Payment of fees remain the responsibility of the student and fees are payable according to the UJ Student Financial Policy.

HOW TO REGISTER ONLINE

After you have been formally accepted on the qualification, (registration is open from mid-January), you should be able to register online if you have paid the minimum required fees.

TO DO SO PLEASE DO THE FOLLOWING:

Log onto the UJ website: www.uj.ac.za

Click on: "Register online"

Follow the steps as requested from there.

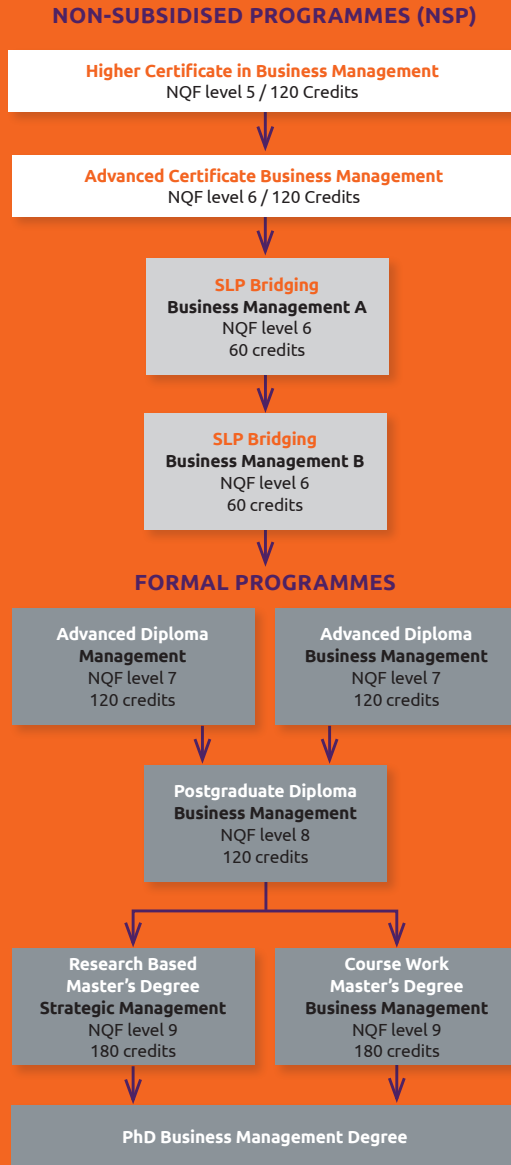

UJ will be posting the Academic Programme containing all the lecture times, dates and venues on the Moodle System towards the end of January (first semester) and June (second semester). All registered students will be able to access this information.

We hope this information will assist you in making your application and registration process a positive experience.

The University reserves the right, should circumstances dictate, to make changes to, or withdraw any of the opportunities an offer.
