

Celebrating 30 Years of Democracy in South Africa: Responding to a Global Water Crisis in the South African Context - Access, Quality and Dignity

Reviewing Access to Water and Mitigating Climate Change

DATE Tuesday, 12 November 2024

TIME 14:00 - 15:30

ONLINE

For more information on our speakers and to register attendance, click on link

The University of Johannesburg invites you to attend this public webinar.

Led by Dr Marlene van der Merwe Botha, Director of Watergroup Holdings (Pty) Ltd, the programme promises to be insightful, paving the way for sustainable water access.

Joining Dr van der Merwe Botha are industry and academic experts:

Mr Solomon Moitswadi Makate

Director: Drinking Water Regulation, Department of Water Affairs

Prof Tobias Barnard

Director: Water Health Research Centre, University of Johannesburg

Dr Jo Burgess

Head of Trial Reservoir, Isle Utilities Ltd

Prof Christopher Curtis

Department of Geography & Environmental Management & Energy Studies, University of Johannesburg

Engage with matters as diverse as Water Quality to Environmental Policy:
Research
Practical Solutions
The Way Forward

