

PROGRAMME

25 NOVEMBER 2024 | 11 AM – 2 PM GMT +2

ONLINE SEMINAR

Webinar registration link

Showcase of impactful research focused on societal improvement and sustainable solutions

Purpose: Make university research more applicable and implementable in society.

Collaboration: We welcome engagement of government representatives, potential investors, and industry professionals.

11:00	Welcome and introductions	Chirantan Chatterjee
11:15	Purpose	Radhika Bhuyan
11:20	University of Johannesburg Process, Energy and Environment Technology Station	Nickey Janse van Rensburg
11:25 (2h15)	BreilleRead: The mission is to empower visually impaired individuals through innovative technology.	Reamogetse Tshabalala
	Social Enterprises: A Pathway to Creating Sustainability in Menstrual Hygiene Management	Sadrita Deb
	The control of sexually transmitted infections among key and priority populations in Limpopo primary healthcare facilities: a roadmap for programme strengthening	Mohlago Seloka
	Optimizing Healthcare Delivery in Low- and Medium-Income Countries (LMICs) through AI and Digital Tools	Logistic Makoni
	Using AI for urban habitat mapping in the global south: Can AI and space data classify socio-economic clusters in the global south cities?	Moinul Zaber
	Creating awareness through hands-on stripping and assembling car engines	Samuel Loyiso Gqibani
	iZindaba Zokudla: 10 years of the farmers' lab	Naudé Malan
	Sustainability in the mining space	Thelma Kadiramwando
	ScarabTech - the wins and challenges of converting plastic into fuel	David Terblanche
Biacore in the Sustainable Energy Landscape: A Comparative Analysis	Sambit Bhattacharyya
13:40	Way forward and closing	Radhika Bhuyan